5 Risk management

- 5.1 The Company regularly evaluates the nature and extent of its exposure to the risk of modern slavery occurring in its supply chain.
- 5.2 For the vast majority of Our suppliers, representatives of the Company have met with them on a face-to-face basis.
- 5.3 Due to the nature of Our services, We do not consider that We operate in high risk sectors, however We have identified that some locations might be considered high-risk and accordingly We work very closely with respected and (where applicable) licensed local suppliers in these regions to ensure risk is mitigated. Representatives have visited those suppliers in country and maintain close relationships with them.
- 5.4 Where We have identified a potential risk, this is recorded on the internal risk register together with the mitigating steps. This is kept under review.
- 5.5 We have robust contracts with Our suppliers, which may include contractual clauses to ensure compliance with the anti-slavery laws or make include reference to policy documents and adherence thereto. We are clear that We do not tolerate slavery and human trafficking within Our supply chains.

6 Effectiveness and KPIs

- 6.1 We review matters regularly to ensure compliance. Our contracts typically have audit clauses in them to permit reviews to be undertaken.
- 6.2 We watch market trends to understand where there may be issues of concern allowing us, were there to be any, the ability to react accordingly.
- 6.3 Due diligence on licensed suppliers includes provision of their up to date licence; failure to produce this would be to fail a KPI requirement and would mean that the arrangements would need to be brought to an end.

7 Training

- 7.1 We are committed to educating Our staff to recognise the risks of modern slavery and human trafficking in Our business and supply chains.
- 7.2 We work to ensure that employees understand the benefits of stringent measures to tackle slavery and human trafficking, as well as the consequences of failing to eradicate slavery and human trafficking from Our business and supply chains.

8 Further actions and sign-off

- 8.1 Following Our review of Our actions this financial year to prevent slavery or human trafficking from occurring in Our business or supply chains, We intend to take the following further steps to tackle slavery and human trafficking:

8.1.1 further audits of key suppliers in higher risk locations;

8.1.2 a default inclusion of our anti-slavery and human trafficking supplier policies at the registration stage for our new / returning largest supplier type;

8.1.3 improved training to all staff.

8.2 This statement is made in accordance with section 54(1) of the Modern Slavery Act 2015 and constitutes the Company's slavery and human trafficking statement for the financial year commencing 1 January 2023 and ending 31 December 2023.

8.3 This statement was approved on 27 June 2024.
